12. (Unclassified - LJK) LIAISON Had lunch with Timothy H. Ingram, Staff Director, House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights. Ingram said that no hearings are scheduled as of yet, and he does not expect the Committee to schedule any hearings in the near future. He feels that the new Chairman, Richardson Preyer (D., N. Car.), will be fully involved in his activities in the House Select Committee on Assassinations. Ingram further stated that he is going to recommend that the Subcommittee Members authorize staff studies from Freedom of Information Act compliance, particularly in the areas of trade secrets and intra-agency memoranda. He does not feel that either of these areas will require any review of CIA activities. He further stated that the staff would like to continue its work on security classification but does not see any interest in this by the Members. Ingram further indicated that the bill introduced by former Chairwoman Bella S. Abzug (D., N. Y.) last year requiring notification to victims of improper intelligence agency activities would not be reintroduced and that this matter will probably be dropped.
